

Limerick, Disabled Driver Terms and Conditions,

1. The exemption card relating to the exemption from payment of tolls on the N18 Limerick Tunnel Toll road is issued in compliance with the N18 Limerick Tunnel Toll road Bye-Laws which came into operation in May 2010. The card relates solely to the category of Disabled Driver of Specially Adapted Vehicles.
2. The card is issued by Direct Route (Limerick) Ltd. and must be tendered to a toll collector at a manned toll booth on each occasion of use. The toll collector is required to register the details contained on the exemption card. The appropriate toll will be levied if a valid exemption card is not presented.
3. The exemption card is valid for 2 years (from date of issue). Sufficient time should be allowed for renewal of the card in advance of the expiry date stated on the card.
4. The card can only be used by the specified holder whilst driving the specially adapted vehicle the details of which are as specified on the application form. Before issuing a card, Direct Route (Limerick) Ltd. may require to inspect the vehicle to confirm eligibility.
5. The card is not valid for vehicles used for the purposes of conveyance of goods or persons for hire or reward.
6. Notwithstanding eligibility for the exemption, toll free passage will not be allowed if the card holder is not in possession of the card at time of travel.
7. Changes in circumstances regarding the type of specially adapted vehicle or its registration details or any changes in disability entitlements must be notified to Direct Route (Limerick) Ltd.
8. Loss of identity card must be reported to Direct Route (Limerick) Ltd. as soon as possible
9. Cards are not transferable and must be kept and used in accordance with these terms and conditions.
10. Any authorised officer of Direct Route (Limerick) Ltd. has the right, upon production if necessary of his/her identity, to be satisfied that the card in use has been issued to an eligible individual and that the person is driving the vehicle.
11. Abuse of the terms and conditions of use of the card could constitute an offence under the Roads Act 1993 and lead to its withdrawal.
